"LED Cathedral" is a vivid reminder of the aesthetics of colored light in Gothic structures. Students will explore the inventiveness of Gothic architecture -- financing, design, construction, decoration, and ritual -- for the medieval spirit of competition to build the biggest, the best, the most beautiful church in Christendom.